CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

Introduced	December 2015
Review 1	December 2018
Review 2	December 2021
Next Review	December 2024

DEFINITION:

For the purpose of this policy, The School refers to Dunes International School and students protection is defined as all those measures, steps and actions that must be taken to avoid subjecting students while at School or outside it, during any School activities and during their transportation to any danger or harm, be it exploitation, violence, physical harm, sexual abuse, any verbal insult, moral threat or harm of any kind. It is every student's right to be in a safe school environment that is free of any form of abuse and that continuously offers care, support and protection to all students without discrimination.

PURPOSE:

- To emphasize the protection of students as a core principle, which stems from the moral obligation, and to safeguard them from abuse or harm and to ensure their security and the welfare, as required pursuant to applicable laws in force in the UAE
- To have clear guidelines in preparing the comprehensive policy and procedures to:
 - Protect students and prevent the exploitation, bullying, physical and sexual abuse, insult or harm of any other kind which students may face and to identify those who may have suffered harm.
 - ➤ Promote students culture, social and mental growth to enable them to become strong, self-confident members of society.
 - ➤ To ensure all school staff, parents and children are aware of their rights and responsibility under federal law no 3 of 2016 on child right.
 - > To make sure all staff are aware that they are authorized and expected to report any case of suspected abuse or neglect to the Child Protection Officer or Principal in their absence.

When to be concerned

Staff should be concerned if a pupil:

- Has any injury which is not typical of the bumps and scrapes normally associated with children's activities.
- Regularly has unexplained injuries.
- Frequently have injuries, even when apparently reasonable explanations are given.
- Offers confused or conflicting explanations about on how injuries were sustained.
- Exhibits significant changes in behavior, performance or attitude.
- Indulges in sexual behavior which is unusually explicit and/or inappropriate to his or her age.
- Discloses an experience in which he or she may have been significantly harmed.

Dealing with a disclosure

If a pupil discloses that he or she has been abused in some way, the member of staff:

- Listens to what is being said without displaying shock or disbelief;
- Accepts what is being said;
- Allows the child to talk freely;
- Reassures the child, but not make promises which might not be possible to keep;
- Not promise confidentially, as it might be necessary to refer the case to the Safety officer;
- Reassures the pupil that what has happened is not their fault;
- Stress that it was the right thing to tell;
- Listens, rather than ask direct questions;
- Asks open questions rather than leading questions;
- Not criticize the perpetrator;
- Explains what has to be done next and who has to be told.

Recording disclosure

When a pupil has made a disclosure, the member of staff will:

- Makes some brief notes as soon as possible after the conversation;
- Does not destroy the original notes in case they are needed by a court;
- Records the date, time, place and any noticeable non-verbal behavior and the words used by the child;
- Draws a diagram to indicate the position of any bruising or other injury;
- Records statements and observations, rather than interpretations or assumptions.
